THE MYSTERY MAN COMIN' OUTTA TH' SHADOWS...

As a new era in America begins with the inauguration of President Jimmy Carter a great many folks are getting more & more perturbed over the way things seem to be handling. It has been quite a shock to ordinary folks to discover that Carter hunkered with the likes of David Rockefeller and many other of the crowd sometimes anilingly referred to as the International Elite and that he was nominated to the outfit called Trilateral Committee, a foreign policy group organized in 1973 by Chase Manhattan Bank President David Rockefeller.

Names recently become more familiar to rank & file Americans likewise have ties to these International Elitists and the Big Money Crowd. Namely W. Michael Blumenthal, Treasury Secretary designate, Jane Plaffer, of IBM, who turned

1976 Cow Slaughter Projected At 10.6 Million Head

Denver — U.S. cow slaughter in 1976 totaled more than 10.6 million head — down from the record high level in 1975 but ahead of the pace previously estimated as being needed to get the cow herd back into better balance with demand.

Fed Cattle Lower Monday at Major Markets, Dressed Beef Sharply Off, Hogs Higher at Most, Few Lower

Around the major livestock terminal markets on Monday the fed steers and heifers were under pressure as carcass beef quotes were sharply lower. Receipts of slaughter cattle were about 2,700 larger than last Monday. Hog receipts were about 14,800 above a week ago, but hog prices were higher at nearly all points, but lower at Kansas City and St. Joseph. Pork prices were generally on the stronger side. Price trends, quotations on choice and prime fed steers and heifers and the mixed good and choice grades and U.S. 1-6 hogs scaling in most cases 200 to 270 pounds, included:

Omaha fed steers 75-1.00 lower, heifers 50-75c off. Steers 38.00 on some big weights to 38.25 and 38.50 to 37.25; heifers 35.50-37.00 and 34.00-35.50. Hogs steady at 37.50-40.75. Sioux City fed cattle 50-1.00 lower. Steers 36.25-38.00 and 36.50-37.50; heifers 34.00-36.50 and 34.00-35.00. Hogs steady to 25c higher at 37.50-40.50.

Ronald Reagan To Address Cattlemen

Fort Worth — Ronald Reagan, syndicated columnist and radio broadcaster, will deliver the keynote address of the 100th annual convention of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association here at a kickoff luncheon March 21. The TSCRA convention will be held at Tarrant County Convention Center March 20-23, says TSCRA President J. A. Whittenburg III of Amarillo.

The untimed presidential candidate and twice California governor will

St. Paul steers 50-1.00 lower, heifers 50c off. Steers 36.50-37.50 and 35.00-36.50; heifers 35.00-38.00 and 34.00-35.00. Hogs steady to 50c higher at 38.00-40.50. Sioux Falls fed cattle 75-1.25 lower. Steers 38.50-37.50 and 36.50-38.75; heifers 33.50-36.25 and 36.50-34.50. Hogs fully steady at 38.00-40.00.

Cattlemen Reject Coffee Boycotting

Amarillo — At least one group will continue coffee drinking rather than join the current coffee boycott. Cattle producers across the nation are expressing empathy for South America.

Association Locates in Fort Worth

Fort Worth — The National Beefmaster Association, newly organized beef cattle breeders group, established headquarters in Fort Worth during a crowded busy board of directors meeting here Thursday night.

The National Beefmaster Assn. offices are in room 817 in the Sinclair Bldg. at 6th and Main in downtown Fort Worth, phone 817-332-4818.

Like votes on all other propositions to come before the board, the decision to establish its offices here was unanimous. Board member Heyburn Anderson of Dallas, in making the motion to establish offices in Fort Worth, noted that this city is centrally located in respect to Beefmaster dispersion throughout the nation, and is convenient to breeders from distant parts of the country via the Dallas-Fort Worth Airport.

NBA's bylaws call for all board meetings to be open to members of the association and a crowd of more than 60 persons jammed the meeting room in the Blackstone Hotel.

First action of the board was to relieve Mrs. Fred (Bobbie) Quinn, San Antonio, of her post as executive secretary of the association, a post to which she had been appointed when the association was organized in San Antonio Dec. 11, 1976. She remained as secretary of the association, and was paid position.

The board's next action was to define the manner in which its members' Beefmaster cattle can be classified. An "N" brand will signify a superior Beefmaster animal; an "U" brand will signify an unspectacular animal; and no brand will denote a mediocre animal. Classification will be made on a strictly voluntary basis, and will be done by a committee of three persons including a paid classifier with at least five years experience as a Beefmaster breeder or as a county agent, and two recognized Beefmaster breeders from a near proximity to the herd to be inspected.

Bylaws of NBA call for a 12-member board, and nine had been named earlier, but one member's resignation because of pressure of other business interests was accepted. Two new members were unanimously appointed to the board: Loyd Graf, Tulsa, Texas, and Wayne (Curley) How, Arlington.

Executive committee members present were: Jim Wannamaker, Ellis, Kan., president; W. A. Patterson, Mansfield, treasurer; and Loyd McCarter, Michie, Tenn., vice president. Board members present in addition to the two new ones were Ernie Allen, Scurry; Ted Scherer, Richardson; Ken Farmer, Athens; Heyburn Anderson, Dallas; Dr. Barry B. Thompson, Ph.D., Commerce; Jerry Hardin, Mesquite; and Robert Machen, M.D., Dallas.

A membership meeting of the NBA was to have been held Saturday, Jan. 8, in San Antonio, in which the other two board vacancies were to be filled.

Oklahoma Farms Numbers Steady

The preliminary estimate for a number of farms and ranches that operate in Oklahoma during 1977 is 28,000, according to the Oklahoma Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. This is unchanged from the number in 1976 but down 1,000 from the average number during 1974 through 1976. The average size, farm, at 428 acres, is also unchanged from 1976 but up 5 acres over 1974. Land area in farms and ranches remained at 36.5 million acres, unchanged since 1974. The number of farms in the state declined steadily over the past two years but the decline is slowing down.

The 31st annual Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show will host two sales for commercial female cattle during the show Jan. 28 through Feb. 6, reports W. R. Watt Jr., Fat Stock Show general manager.

Making a debut will be a show and sale for commercial Angus females in pens of 15 head. The sale is sponsored by the Texas Angus Association.

Each group will show prior to sale in two classes for premiums

CULL — CULL — CULLED?

Now cull your herd 10% more, and replace your bulls with good 3/4 Chionino bulls (one to each 30-40 cows) and still produce more beef and money per year plus those great three-eighths Chianina replacement heifers for your future herd.

We have 3/4 bulls, service bulls, and colves, for sale.

We steered over half of our colves; sowed just the best for your bulls. Come look before you breed another cow.

"I know of no place where a buyer can select replacement females comparable to the quality that will be offered or in such great volume," Chastain added. "The 300 Angus heifers on offer are excellent quality of the new, modern Angus type, reported Dale Overpeck, executive secretary of the Texas Angus Association. 'Lots are consigned by nine of the leading commercial herds of the Southwest.'"

Overpeck said the majority of the black heifers are of breeding age and "will serve as superior replacement animals to help build an Angus herd." He added, "The show and sale will be one of the major events on the 1977 Texas Angus calendar."

Plans Set For ANCA Convention

Plans are set for the 80th annual convention and trade show of the American National Cattlemen's Assn. to be held Feb. 1-4 at the World Congress Center in Atlanta, Ga. The theme of the event is "ANCA 2000," and the entire program is geared to helping cattle producers and feeders assure themselves of a more profitable future as the industry moves toward the year 2000, said Wray Finney, ANCA president.

One highlight of the convention will be a membership vote on Friday, Feb. 4, on the proposed consolidation of ANCA with the National Livestock Feeders Assn. The ANCA board previously analyzed the consolidation plan and recommended its adoption to the membership.

Action on the proposed merger will be in addition to committee and member development of policies and actions dealing with various public issues.

The ANCA trade show — the largest ever, with more than 200 exhibits of products and services — will be another highlight of the nation's largest annual cattle industry event.

In addition, Finney pointed, three days of talks and panel discussions (Feb. 2-4) will include more educational information than ever before. All of this is aimed at helping the individual cattlemen improve his own production, marketing and management performance.

The program on Thursday morning, Feb. 2, will include a series of talks by national leaders in beef production and marketing — showing cattlemen how they can take advantage of new and coming developments in the way of markets, management and production techniques. There also will be suggestions on how cattlemen jointly can help overcome cyclical problems and other problems plaguing the industry.

Among other educational events will be a series of seminars sponsored by ANCA committees — with panels of speakers presenting useful information on such subjects as the grain market outlook, effects of tax changes, the cattle outlook, electronic identification, foreign trade, effects of food use, regulations, herd health management, beef grading, and financing of operations involving public lands.

A special feature in Atlanta will be "Dixie Day" on Thursday, Feb. 3. On that day, Southeastern cattlemen who do not wish to attend the entire convention will be able to visit the trade show and attend educational meetings. The fee for this one-day participation will be $10.

For information on registration and hotel reservations, contact the ANCA convention department, P. O. Box 869, Denver, Colo. 80201 (800-881-1804).

John White Warns Grain Thefts On Increase In State

Austin — Grain handlers from farmers to elevator operators are being warned by Agriculture Commissioner John C. White to double precautionary steps to halt the increase in thefts of whole truckloads of sorghum.

"By using various schemes, drivers, often using stolen trucks, are stealing more grain than in the past. We have had more reports on thefts recently because of the great amount of grain stored on the ground. Elevators are full, and farmers are having to wait to send their harvest to storage," White explained. "The drivers are bolder now; they just make off with the entire truckload."

Several ruses are successful because of the shortage of transportation. During the height of harvest season, trucks are difficult to contract, and farmers will take almost anyone who is available, just to get his grain out of the weather and into storage, White said.

One driver loaded his truck with 80,000 pounds of mho, consigned for Galveston. The grain was never delivered. The farmer did get the trailer license number, but the records showed that the license was stolen.

San Angelo Cattle

San Angelo, Jan. 14 (F-S) — Receipts 4,300: Slaughter calves and yearlings 1,500; slaughter steers and heifers 1,000; feeders mostly fully weaned except firm to 1.00 higher on offerings. Stock cows steady, slaughter calves 28.00-32.00, Cattle 450-675 lbs. 29.00-32.00, Cornfed dressing 28.75-27.50, Cattle 22.00. Bulls: Yield grade 1 and 2 1200-1600 lbs. 30.00-36.00, while low-dressing 25.00-28.50. Feeder Steers: Choice and few 400-450 lbs. 36.50-39.75, few 400-450 lbs. 40.00-41.00, 500-700 lbs. 35.50-38.50. Good 300-500 lbs. 33.50-36.50, 500-700 lbs. 33.00-35.50. Heifers: Choice 500 lbs. 29.00-32.00, 600-800 lbs. 28.50-31.50. Good 300-500 lbs. 29.00, 500-650 lbs. 26.50-28.50.

"We have several suggestions for farmers and elevator operators, but the most important is to try to be as wary as the thief. If operators don't know the driver, he should get the driver's license number, the make of the truck and trailer, the license number of the truck and trailer, and some type of description on the vehicle."

"Once the grain has been picked up, don't wait two or three days to call the destination. Allow just sufficient time for him to get there and call to make certain that delivery was made. If the truck hasn't reached the destination, call the nearest law enforcement office," White advised.

Farmers in the Panhandle are cautioned not to leave their loaded trailers in the fields overnight; some thieves have just been towing them off.

Another suggestion is the use of consignment codes for each farmer or elevator. This helps in proving theft from elevators and could deter thefts. Such a method is widely used in the Midwest, but has not become common practice in Texas.

In 1958, Colonel C. C. Slaughter purchased a Hereford bull for $5,000.

State Fair Jr. Exhibitors Share $284,540 Monies

Despite an overall decline in sales at the 1976 State Fair of Texas Junior Livestock Show, figures from the sales show that the more than 1200 youths managed to set four new records in the book.

The figures, just released by the State Fair Livestock Office, revealed that the youths posted records in the sale of steers and lambs at above the market prices.

In fact, sales to the blue, red and white ribbon categories at the steer auction, added with the figures from the junior barrow and lamb sales, averaged about 15.6c more than the market price that day. The over the market average for steers was very near the overall average with 15.8c, an average of 55.8 cents per pound per steer.

In all the 289 steers, excluding the champions, sold for $148,180.95, while 129 lambs averaged 24 cents per pound over the market rate and totaled $7,913.37.

The Junior Barrow sale, however, failed to outshine any of its previous records during the auctioning of 821 animals. The average was a mere 7 cents per pound and the gross totaled only $45,957.37.

"The show was a huge success for the participants," said Don Clark, director of the State Fair of Texas Livestock Exposition, "some of them made quite a bit of money with the money from the sales and the premiums."

Money totaling about $284,540.50, including the premium total of $22,437.50, will be mailed out to the Futura Farmers and 4-H Club members.

Commercial Female Sale. Two horse sales will highlight the show. Quarter horses will sell at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 26, sponsored by the Houston Quarter Horse Breeders' Association. An Appaloosa Sale sponsored by the Texas Appaloosa Horse Club will take place at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, March 5.

The junior commercial steer sale, at 9 a.m. on Thursday, March 3, will be the first of the market auctions so popular with junior exhibitors at the show. The junior market broilers and turkey sale is scheduled for 10 a.m. and the market lamb sale at 2:00 p.m. March 4.

Saturday, March 5, will see the last of the auction sales with market steers selling at 10 a.m. and market barrows going on sale at 2:30 p.m. Additional information on the show, plus the new premium list, may be obtained from the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, P. O. Box 20070, Houston, Texas 77025.

Texas Ranchers Have Best Chance Ever To Eradicate Screwworms

Mission, Dec. 30 — If everyone does his part this winter stockmen will have the best chance ever to eliminate screwworms from Texas ranges, says Dr. M. E. (Cotton) Meadows, Jr., director of the Southwest Screwworm Eradication Program.

"Cooler than normal weather in November and December aided the eradication effort. Mexico produced sterile flies are being released in that country south of the Texas border," says the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service veterinarian.

Meadows says the 171 laboratory confirmed December cases from Texas ranges brought the year's case total to 20,241. This is exceeded only by 90,980 cases in 1972, and 49,484 in 1963 — year the program started. Only 20 cases were tallied the last half of December.

ABBA Ends Year With New Records

Houston — The American Brahman Breeders Association closed out the 1976 year with two new records in registrations and transfers.

An all time record 34,079 registrations were recorded in 1976. This is a 21% increase over the number of registrations recorded in 1975 which

San Antonio Stock Show Names Stars

Stars for the 1977 San Antonio Stock Show Rodeo have been named, according to Harold M. Freeman, Life Chairman of the board.

Appearing at the 1977 show, scheduled for Joe Freeman Coliseum, Feb. 11-20, will be Toni Ingreham, Lalo Gonzalez (El Piporro), and Myron Floren and Anacani.

Miss Ingreham, who appeared in San Antonio last year at the Shriner Charity Horse Show, will appear at seven rodeo performances Feb. 11 through 18. A former pop singer, Miss Ingreham turned to country and western music just two years ago and was then an all time record 27,527. 1976 marked the eighth consecutive year that ABBA registrations increased over the previous year.

In addition a record 28,688 animals were transferred, breaking last year's record of 22,087. This figure reflects an eight per cent increase in transfers.

Despite the poor commercial market and relatively pessimistic attitude found in the beef industry, the 30 Brahman sales held in 1976 grossed over $5 million dollars and averaged $1,408 a head. This compares favorably with 1975 when 2,729 head were sold at public auction for a $1,407 average.

Sheep Exhibitors Complete For $10,504 At Houston Show

Sheep and goat exhibitors will complete for part of a record $10,383 in premiums to be distributed at the 1977 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. Premiums for breeding ewes will amount to $10,604, while $1,383 will be available for market lamb premiums. Angora goats will contend for $1,050 in premium money.

The Livestock Show opens February 23 and runs through March 3, with rodeo performances every night in the Auditorium beginning February 26.

Open class breeding sheep competition will lead off the 77 Show, with entrants competing for $7,240 in premiums. Judging of Hampshire, Shropshire and Suffolk breeds will begin the first day of the show, Wednesday, February 23, at 9 a.m. in the Sheep arena. Southdown, Dorset, Montadale, Corriedale and Columbia entries will be judged at 9 a.m. the next day, February 24, in the Sheep Arena. Open class judging will conclude Friday, February 25, when Delaine-Merle and Rambouillet breeds will be exhibited in the Sheep Arena, at 9 a.m.

Junior exhibitors who enter the Junior Breeding Sheep Show will compete for $3,284 in premium money. The American Hampshire Sheep Association will distribute $41 in premiums among the top ten Hampshire ewes in the ewe lamb and two-tooth ewe classes. The Texas Suffolk Sheep Association will award $15 and a trophy to the exhibitor of the champion Suffolk ram and ewe, and $10 and a trophy to the exhibitor of the reserve champion Suffolk ram and ewe. The two-day competition begins at 8 a.m., Friday, March 4, in the Sheep Arena.

Beef production today is a tough business. During such times, tradition and prejudice give way to breeds and crosses that have the most to offer in providing a return on dollars invested.

Look around and you will see that one breed has the staying power when times get tough — Brahman. Why?

Cattlemen are quickly realizing that Brahman hybrids have higher reproductive performance and heavier weaning weights than most other crosses. That's why 90 per cent of all Brahman bulls sold are going into crossbreeding programs, a prime example of the breed's increasing popularity.

Brahman cross heifers are money-makers too. They make excellent mothers, are highly efficient and live long, productive lives.

When purchasing herd sires, don't just buy a bull; make an investment — in Brahman. Crossbreeding's Common Denominator.

Predicted jetstream patterns indicate that 1977 winter weather will be cold and snowy.

The eastern corn-belt will be cold but not as cold as the western edge. The western corn-belt can expect temperatures from 3 to 6 degrees below normal. Precipitation will probably be slightly below normal, but conditions will be favorable for occasional blizzards, particularly in the Dakotas, Minnesota and Iowa.

The summer of 1977 is likely to be hot and dry, with last year's drought creeping slightly northward.

Replacement Cattle Prices Were Mixed Last Week, Fleishy Feeders Weaker

Kansas City, Jan. 14 (USDA) — National Feeder Cattle and Calf Summary approximately 161,000 this week, 113,000 last week, 207,000 last year. Tracing a line from Wyoming, Colorado, down thru the High Plains and over into the Southeast, feeder prices were steady to 2.00 lower but California, Dodge City, Kansas and into the river market terminals prices were steady to 1.00 higher except fleshy steers over 700 lbs. at Sioux City and Kansas City weak to fully 1.00 lower according to the Livestock Market News Service of the USDA.

Pybas-Ward Simmental Bulls Average $472

Gainesville, Texas — In the J. E. Pybas Ranch, Thurman Wead, Cecil Ward and Parker Yarbrough Simmental bulls sale, the 98 lots averaged $472 for a gross of $45,605 here Jan. 8.

El Campo Hereford Bulls Average $445

El Campo, Texas — Forty-eight bulls averaged $445 per head in the second annual El Campo Hereford Bull Sale Saturday, Dec. 12. The sale was handled by Brittan & Brittan, Bryan, auctioneers and sale managers, and was held at El Campo Livestock Commission Co.

Buyers included: George Gold and Arthur Priestmayer, both of El Campo; Don Mahatta, Eagle Lake; Mat Boska, Hallettsville; Charles Glass, Rosenberg; and R. C. Johnson, Bay City.

The bulls were consigned by: Ray Murphy, Brownsville; Morris Lary K. Meridian; D. S. Ford Ranch, Yukum; Richard Brittan, Bryan; Double B Cattle Co., Bryan; and Roy Herrmann, Caldwell.

For the 2nd straight week into the new year 1977, prices were mixed, even by area; viz Colorado yearlings steady to 1.50 lower but Greeley steady to 1.00 higher, Colorado calves steady to 1.00 lower except Greeley and Sterling steady to 2.00 higher, Tennessee steers 2.00 lower early but closing steady.

Dodge City sold native calves steady but imported were 1.00 to 2.00 lower. It was a highly uneven price week of highly selective buying.

While there is still optimism shown by buyers buying thin calves and yearlings that can be banded and later turned to graze there is lesser optimism on fleshy yearlings with many feeders liquidating in the face of unfavorable present slaughter cattle returns in relation to gain costs.

Harsh winter weather was a negative factor, making transporting livestock hazardous and crimping demand.

can coffee growers.

"The reason coffee prices are high right now is because, back down the line of production, a lot of coffee growers suffered crop losses from bad weather," says Jack Carrothers of Frisco, Tex. "And cattlemen have been down that road. The 1976 beef boycott did nothing but kick the beef industry while it was down."

Carrothers is a cattle feeder and a past president of the Texas Cattle Feeders Association.

Carrothers compares the coffee dilemma to the beef boycott several years ago. "At that time the cattle industry had just come through a terrible winter," he says. "Thousands of cattle died from the severe weather and the growth rate on millions of other feedyard cattle was stunted, resulting in temporary shortages of beef supplies and higher prices. Rather than 'riding out' the storm with us, consumers chose to try to force the price of beef down through boycotts."

Although cattle are losing an estimated $50 per head in the feedyards, Carrothers says cattlemen are not cutting back on coffee drinking.

"We're more than glad to pay this relatively higher price for coffee now because we (cattle producers) realize that it will encourage more coffee production, assuring coffee drinkers of a steady supply and a reasonable price for coffee in the future."

"Those South American coffee growers may not speak the same language as American cattle producers," Carrothers adds, "but both groups can understand economic messages. Whenever there is an interruption in the flow of food products to the marketplace, the producer gets the message and begins to plan ways to minimize risks."

Some beef industry leaders have said that beef will be "very scarce" by 1978 or 1979, with prices "very high." And U.S. Department of Agriculture officials predicted last month that 1977 beef prices will be at "record levels," averaging about $1.49 per pound, 10 cents higher than 1973 prices.

Stock Show Set

country and western singing star will be appearing at each of the 20 rodeo performances in Will Rogers Coliseum.

Success as a writer started with the biggest song Stogell has had to date. "Here We Go Again" was recorded by Ray Charles, and remains a popular number. Since such artists as Devo, Martin, Glen Campbell, Bobby Goldsboro, Roy Clark, Charley Pride, and Eddy Arnold have made hits of such Stogell writings as "Beer Drinkin' Music," "A Dozen Pairs of Boots," and "Walk All Over Georgia."

Stogell's personal recording career began with a bang and a song called "Party Dolls and Wins." Other records which have followed — he's had 18 chart hits to date — include "Fiddle Man," "Somewhere My Love," "I Gave Up Good Morning Darlin'," and "Someone Cares For You."

The Stock Show and Rodeo kicks off with a three-mile all-weather parade through downtown Fort Worth at 2 p.m. Friday, Jan. 28. The parade will assemble in the west parking lot of Dillard's Department Store and move east on Weatherford to Houston, south to 7th Street, east to Main, north to the Tarrant County Court House, and west on Weatherford to the assembly area.

This year's parade will be televised on Channel 39 under sponsorship of Tasty Leather Company. TV coverage will be live at 2 p.m. and will be repeated on tape at 11 p.m. according to a joint announcement by W. R. Wait Jr., Stock Show general manager, and Ray Thompson, president of Tasty Leather.

Indications are for 1977 entries to exceed the record of 14,282 posted at the 1976 show. Returning to the show after more than four decades of absence, mules and donkeys will be judged in classes of halter and performance. New for the cattle division will be shows and sales of commercial Angus females, offered in pen of 15.

Stock Show grounds will be open from 8 a.m. until midnight during the 10-day run. Grounds admission of $1 is included in the rodeo ticket price, or can be purchased at any gate. Rodeo tickets for the two Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights have been sold out, but tickets remain for the other 14 performance. Ticket office is at the north entrance of Will Rogers Coliseum.

Last year more than 620,000 persons toured the show grounds with over 145,000 people seeing the rodeo. All exhibits on the grounds are open to visitors.

Highlights for urban visitors are the FFA Children's Barnyard, featuring mother farm animals with their young, and the Milking Parlor, where visitors can view milking time each day for the dairy animals at the show.

The commercial exhibits for the 1977 Stock Show will be housed in two buildings on the grounds in addition to a number of exhibits outside on the grounds. Over 600 commercial booths have been contracted for the show, featuring farming and ranching equipment and things for better living.

Stock Show midway rides, thrills and games will be provided by the Gene Ledel Shows. A number of new and exciting rides are to be on the grounds for the show.

Some 688 entries have been registered for the rodeo. Entries include all current world champions and many past champions as well as challengers. The Mike Cervi Championship Rodeo Company of Sterling, Colo., will be stock contractor. Cervi will have over 260 head of bucking horses and bulls on hand for the contest, approved by the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association.

Specialty acts include Earl Wharlow's "Shepherders" from San Saba, and the 1977 National Brahman Show and Sale is being hosted by the Texas Brahman Association. For more information contact: Locke, P. O. Box 106, Humble, Texas 77448, or ABBA, 1813 Concha Lane, Houston, Texas 77064.

By ANN SYLER

Last time around in this article, we explored the communication gap that could possibly occur between the incoming Carter administration and the media as well as the general public unless these last two meatloafed groups learn to speak — or at least understand — this new language of "Southern" as spoken in small southern towns, especially small southern Brangus towns. (Do you remember your first lesson? That word, of course, is Georgia.) Well, a couple of

Brangus Bull Sale Reported

Durant, Okla. — In the Indian Nations Brangus bull sale here Dec. 11, the 88 bulls sold for $42,480 for an average of $511. The sale was you believe even smaller than Burton?

In area of business buildings, at least — or business streets, rather. There is only one block fronted by about six buildings, the bank and post office in the next block, the depot, Billy's "gas station" and that is it. folks, with the exception of the peanut warehouses which cover quite a bit more area than the rest of the town put together.

At any rate, it is one of the prettiest small towns you'll ever see — the homes all large, and old, and "comfortable" looking with large porches, the buildings all spruced up with new coats of bright paint; "Miss Lillian's" rocking chair in the center of the platform at the depot — empty at the time we were there — and would all of you Aggies believe that the sign that says "Billy Carter's Gas Station" is painted red, white and blue, with stars and stripes — and cars and cars full of visitors with license plates from all over the United States?

I could not help but feel a little sorry for the townspeople and their town — to have been so decimated upon by so many thousands of tourists with their cameras, their litter and their rudeness, in so many cases. Of course, all of these were my impressions as we drove through — we did not do more than drive around one block, hardly slowing down, much less stopping to browse . . . as all of you who know the drivers of our car (Matt Syler and Gerdie Bowie) can well imagine.

Also, just a short way from Plains, after getting on the interstate we stopped for gas and right across from the station was a small herd of Brangus heifers. This time, we did stop to take a look! They sure looked good, right there on the interstate — originally from the herd of Walter and Beryl Carsa here at Brenham.

We have now had a cover of ice three times this winter — so we here in South Central Texas are setting records just like all other sections of the country — the kind of records we talked with a rancher in Northwest Missouri — 20 below, 20 below and 20 below for several days, river and everything else frozen — and all of the stock ponds dry! Many will have to haul water to their cattle! Also, this morning talked with a family from Colorado — the same thing there — drastically dry!

"Hello" to a new member of the Brangus "family" — Nancy Ward, who is now working for the Journal. And we also say "hello" in this column to the newest member of the staff of this publication, Phil Stoll.

Be sure to attend the Brangus activities in San Antonio, Texas Brangus Breeders Association Membership meeting, celebrating the 20th Anniversary of our Association. Lots of "extras" are planned that you will want to be in on. The "Tops of Texas" Sale, also celebrating the 20th Anniversary, will be held Feb. 12, 2:30 p.m., at the Joe Freeman Coliseum. Don't miss this one! See you there — and again next month in this column.

The morning of Feb. 11 will be for committee meetings and the afternoon session that day will feature the guest speaker, Dr. W. T. "Duke" Berry. The board of directors will meet following Dr. Berry's talk.

Special awards to past presidents will be made during the TBBA managed by Syler Sales Management, Inc., Burton, Texas, and auctioned by Gerald Bowie, West Point, Ga.

Terry Rengen, Milburn, Okla., paid the sale's top price of $1,025 for a third generation Brangus bull consigned by Glynn Simpson's Tallon Farms, Dibble, Okla.

W. A. Mangrove's Bar A Ranch, Bokchito, Okla., consigned 11 bulls that add from $335 to $425, with the two top ones going for $325, one to Bald Mountain Ranch, Eufaula and one to Alvin Roland, Milburn.

ANY COUNTRY IS BRANGUS COUNTRY.
Why?
 Look at the Brangus bull. He combines the hardy Brahman with the efficient Angus to produce quality, uniformity and balanced performance. And he performs consistently because Brangus are not top crossed. Brangus are derived from registered Brahman and Angus cattle.
 The Brangus bull...He's as big as he needs to be. Bigger than most English breed bulls, smaller than the biggest Exotics. He's long, and he's muscular.
 And he's ADAPTABLE. Brangus will grow all the hair they need in winter and still retain the summer heat tolerance of their Brahman forebears. The Brangus bull will settle cows, and settle them fast...regardless of season or terrain. And under frondier conditions, Brangus really out-perform other breeds.
 Brangus bulls are PROFITABLE. They inherit size, ruggedness and peat and disease resistance from the Brahman, excellent beef quality and an unexcelled carcass from the Angus. This adds up to Brangus bulls delivering more profit than any other breed. Crossed with other breeds, the Brangus bull adds 75 pounds or more to weaning weights. And he passes on this growth rate without siring calves too large for easy calving.
 Take a good look at the advantages that come from carefully combining the hardiness of Brahman with the efficiency and carcass quality of Angus. Look at a Brangus bull...He really works...in any country.

Jackson's Holiday Inn-Downtown. According to Lloyd Clarkson, APHA board chairman, Winfield, Kan., this is the first year the breed association will have one full day for convention activities.

"In the past, we set aside only a portion of a day to discuss association business and breed advancement and improvements," Clarkson said. "Now, with the rapid growth of the National Show and the greater number of cattlemen who attend, it has become necessary to expand the traditional three-day event into four full days. This makes it possible to devote one full day to association and industry activities of current interest."

Judging will take place on February 16 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Thursday, February 17. APHA will employ the three-man composite system as it has in past Nationals.

The annual APHA Awards Banquet will be held at 7:00 p.m., February 17 in the Delta Ballroom of the headquarters Holiday Inn-Downtown. Pastured speaker will be Rex Allen, western entertainer and national "Voice of Polled Herefords."

Also on the banquet program will be enshrinement ceremonies for two APHA Hall of Fame breeders, Hugh White, Keller, Texas, and the late L. J. "Dinty" Moore, Covington, Ga. Also, four Hall of Merit awards will be presented and the 1977 National Polled Hereford Queen will be named.

The Sale of National Sires will be held on February 18 at 9:30 a.m. in the Dixie National Trade Mart Building. It will be a "criteria" sale. Only the champion bulls and bulls that place first through fifth in class, and champion heifers and heifers that stand first and second in class will be eligible for the National Sale.

Inquiries about room reservations and convention registration may be addressed to Jim Harris, Dept. of Special Activities, American Polled Hereford Association, 4700 E. 93rd St., Kansas City, MO 64130.

In a letter to Congressman Bergland, Finney said: "We recognize that Mrs. Foreman is a capable person and has been an effective spokesperson for organized consumer and labor groups. We agree that organized consumer groups should be listened to. And, more importantly, we feel that the vast majority of American people who are not represented by consumer activist organizations should have inputs into the U.S. Department of Agriculture. ANCA also seeks to increase dialogue with consumers on matters of mutual interest."

However, we feel that you should consider for appointment to an assistant secretaryship only those persons who are qualified by background, training and experience to hold such a position."

Finney said it has been ANCA's observation over the years that the Assistant Secretary for Marketing and Consumer Services should have once which result in adequate assistance in agricultural technology and economics.

"The person in this position," he continued, "should be qualified to direct the specialized programs and services of the Agricultural Marketing Service, Packers & Stockyards Administration, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, and Food and Nutrition Service. The person in this position should have the training and experience needed to help formulate complex policy and manage operations in such technical areas as animal and plant diseases, meat inspection, meat grading, agricultural marketing and nutrition. The person in this position should be a promulgator capable of directing operations of large departments with effective management—including advice to the public as well as agriculture—requires administrative experience."

"On behalf of the nation's beef cattle producers—by far the largest segment of American agriculture—I respectfully request that you consider appointing only the best qualified persons to assistant secretary positions. Efficient and economical production and distribution of food for Americans and others around the world, and a healthy, viable U.S. agriculture, require the best possible training and experience in top positions of authority in USDA."

The Consumer Federation of America membership list shows considerable support from organized labor as well as certain local consumer, electric cooperative and other groups.
